

THE 65TH ANNUAL ALFRED A. STRAUSS LECTURE

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 2014

4:00 pm

HOGNESS AUDITORIUM

Health Sciences Building

Reception Following the Lecture in the Lobby

Presented by:

UW Medicine

DEPARTMENT OF SURGERY

FROM THE ODYSSEY TO PRESENT TIMES: ROLE OF MENTORING IN THE ACADEMIC WORLD

Mentorship is vital for success in academic medicine. The mentor, the mentee, the department and the institution are the key elements required for effective mentorship and success.

Marco Patti, M.D., F.A.C.S.

Professor of Surgery

Director, Center for Esophageal Diseases

University of Chicago Pritzker School of Medicine

Chicago, Illinois

All persons in the medical and allied professions are welcome to attend.

Please contact dosadmin@uw.edu if you have any questions.

To request disability accommodations, contact the Office of the ADA Coordinator at least 10 days prior to the event. 206-543-6450 (voice), 206-543-6452 (TDD), 206-685-3885 (FAX), access@uw.edu