Surgery Synopsis Reader Feedback

Below are comments we received from readers regarding our Winter 2015 issue:

“Carlos, this is great. The piece on Dr. Schaller is amazing.”
Don Theophilus, Chief Advancement Office and Vice President, UW Medicine Advancement

“This was a great Synopsis—I loved the slide deck on the Department of Surgery and your comments on leadership—they really rang true and feel “uniquely UW.” You’ve been a phenomenal leader and have pointed us to a really great place. I have always felt privileged and honored to walk through the doors of the UW and to be able to call it my home—I am grateful to you for allowing me to develop a career here. Congrats on a great look back—now I’m looking forward to looking forward with you!”

Dr. David Flum, Professor and Associate Chair for Research, Department of Surgery, University of Washington

“I believe that if you focus on making people feel positive, engaged and energized when they consider why they come to work, one unleashes their talent and they make it happen.

That’s exactly why I love my job—Thank you!”

*Enina Bogdani, Administrative Assistant,
Department of Surgery, University of Washington*

“Great Synopsis! Roger Moe was a quiet, unassuming genius. And, as I’m sure you can imagine, great with residents. He had all our respect.”

Dr. John Kenagy, Kenagy & Associates, LLC

“Thank you for the very fine Synopsis of the Department of Surgery. It was both informative and a pleasure to read. My congratulations to you and your staff for the continued success of the program.

Marjorie and myself were saddened to hear of the passing of old friends from my past residency days, Bob Condon and Bob Schaller.

They both were “good people” contributed a lot.”

Dr. Milford S. Ofstun, R’ 63

“Fabulous issue, lots of accomplishments.

Special congratulations to Leah Backhus for a great program.”

Dr. Paula Carvalho, Academic Section Head, Pulmonary and Critical Care Medicine, VA Medical Center, Boise, ID, and Professor of Medicine, University of Washington
