

UW General Surgery Global Health Track Training Structure

	Track A - 3/2/2	Track B - 3/3/2	Track C - 5/2
Surgical Residency	3 years standard rotations	3 years standard rotations	5 years standard rotations
Global Surgery Track	2 years MPH at UW – Year 1 Coursework in the Dept of GH Pathway leading to a GH Certificate or a Certificate in Global Injury Control – Year 1 Field research project(s) – Year 2	3 years UW T32 Training Grant Award (requires 2yr Seattle commitment): Includes MPH at UW Coursework in the Dept of GH Pathway leading to a GH Certificate or a Certificate in Global Injury Control – Year 1 Field research project(s) – Year 3	2 years MPH at UW – Year 1 Coursework in the Dept of GH Pathway leading to a GH Certificate or a Certificate in Global Injury Control – Year 1 Field research project(s) – Year 2
GS Residency	2 years standard rotations	2 years standard rotations	n/a
Funding for Salary/Benefits	All residents in Track A must apply for extramural funding for both years with the assistance of the SORCE staff and the UW Funding Service . Shortfall can be provided by Schilling Resident Research Endowment for both years pending fund availability (max available stipend @ 1 per year). During abroad year, resident’s salary will be smaller than T32 trainees (in line with WHO policy).	A T32 will provide salary and tuition for years 1 and 2. Applications should be made for extramural funding for Year 3 through SORCE staff and the UW Funding Service . Shortfall can be provided by Schilling Resident Research Endowment for Year 3 pending fund availability (max available stipend @ 1 per year). During abroad year, resident’s salary will be smaller than T32 trainees (in line with WHO policy).	All residents in Track C must apply for extramural funding for both years with the assistance of the SORCE staff and the UW Funding Service . Shortfall can be provided by Schilling Resident Research Endowment for both years pending fund availability (max available stipend @ 1 per year). Clinical work During abroad year, resident’s salary will be smaller than T32 trainees (in line with WHO policy).