

GRAND ROUNDS

PRESENTS

Best-CLI: A Journey to Evidence

September 6th, 2023

6:30 - 7:30 AM

K-069, Zoom

Alik Farber, MBA, FACS, DFSVS

Associate Chief Medical Officer for
Surgical Services, Vice Chair
Department of Surgery, Vascular and Endovascular Division
Boston Medical Center

Objectives:

1. Understanding the current state of CLTI Management
2. Learn rule of open bypass in treating CLTI
3. Appreciate rule of endovascular therapy in treating CLTI

The University of Washington School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The University of Washington School of Medicine designates this live activity for a maximum of 20.0 AMA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity. (Each session is 1.0 credits).

Today's speaker does have relevant financial relationships with an ineligible company relevant to this presentation to disclose

None of the planners have relevant financial relationship(s) to disclose with ineligible companies whose primary business is selling, re-selling, or distributing healthcare products used by or on patients.

All relevant financial relationships have been mitigated

Department of Surgery Grand Rounds Contact: dosadmin@uw.edu